

Jim Nesbit

He died on October 31, 2000; he was 66 years old suffering from Alzheimer's disease, at the Wealshire Nursing Home in Lincolnshire, Illinois. He was survived by his wife Nancy and two children, Jim III and Peggy.

Jim attended Wright and the University of Redlands in California, served in the Marine Corps for 2 years and was a real estate residential broker in Arlington Heights.